Unsuccessful Motion to Secure Adjournment of the House This Afternoon.

Nashville, Feb. 12.—Mr. Purcell this afternoon moved that the house adjourn in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln.

It was charged that the motion was simply to delay action on the election bills and the house refused to adjourn by a vote of 12 to 55. It is a test vote on the election bills.

The house adjourned for ten minutes to hear the sermon of Rev.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IN WIFE MURDER CASE

2 cities, N. C., Feb. 12.—The argument of a murder case of W. T. Jones has been postponed, who was convicted last November of slaying his wife. The case was set up again today because Judge Newman, who presided at the trial, has ordered a new trial. The judge has ordered a new trial because he has found that the jury was misled by the evidence. The judge has ordered a new trial because he has found that the jury was misled by the evidence. A Presbyterian deacon who was accustomed to being sent to denominational conventions to extend fraternal greetings was delegated to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, says the Ladies' Home Journal.

Rising to speak, he said it was always an interesting study to him to note the differences of opinion and view that characterized the organizations of the various denominations.

"Whenever I attend a convention of the Episcopal church, for example," said he, "I am struck by the fact that the first great speech is in the pulpit. When I go where the Baptist church has succeeded in securing privilege except that of making the first speech, I find that the privilege is given to a layman. When I appear among the Methodists I notice I am allowed every privilege ex-
